Footnotes

GREEN MOUSE opened clear to dictate terms, drifted out a bit entering the turn, but continued on well and widened through the stretch. ATLANTIC TITAN was a bit slow into stride, tucked in to save ground, checked and shifted out near the seven-sixteenths pole, was straightened away quickly, got through along the rail to make a mild bid, lacked the needed late response, then was all out to hold the place. COLD FACTS attended the pace three wide, came four wide to make his bid, but failed to improve position and settled for the minor award. SABERCAT was close up between horses, steadied from tight quarters nearing the seven-sixteenths pole, came again to make a mild gain between horses but lost his best chance. WHISTLEBLOWER broke in the air to get away well behind his field, was unhurried into stride toward the inside, finished with a belated gain but failed to seriously threaten. GOSPEL HOUR was hustled along five wide to the stretch and faded.
