Footnotes

CAPT. BULLET BOB settled off of the pace in hand along the inside, shifted to the outside of DRYFLY after a half and ranged up to join that one on the turn, took over at will nearing the five-sixteenths pole and quickly shook clear to prove much the best. LOST APTITUDE was unhurried into stride and lagged well back, came four wide and was up to earn the place. TOURISMO contended three wide, but faltered entering the stretch and faded. DRYFLY opened clear to set the pace, was collared midway through the turn and stopped once headed.
