Footnotes

EVELITE, well placed from the start while saving ground, angled around a tiring AUTOMATED in the upper stretch, moved back to the rail, gained a narrow lead in the final sixteenth, then gamely held SMART TIMING safe. The latter, well placed near the inside from early on, moved with the winner approaching the stretch while outside that one, angled four wide for the drive, loomed menacingly but wasn't good enough. RUTHIAN settled in behind the leaders early, rallied five or six wide into the stretch and was going well at the end. STAR QUEEN, never far back, moved up outside front-running AUTOMATED on the backstretch to press the pace, took over soon after going six furlongs, opened a clear advantage but faltered late. SMELLY CAT, outrun while four or five wide for six furlongs, offered a mild gain. POTRIMAGIC (ARG) failed to rally. AVALON TRICK, unhurried early, made a run five wide approaching the final quarter but flattened out when straightened for the drive. AUTOMATED gained the lead inside under a rating hold, made the pace for six furlongs and tired. SHOW ME THE WIRE raced in a striking position for six furlongs and tired.
