Footnotes

PAW PRINTS, unhurried early and between foes four wide, inched to challenge leaving the turn, caught front-running MY PRECIOUS INDIAN in the final furlong and drove clear. MY PRECIOUS INDIAN, never far back and four wide, took over in the upper stretch, drew clear, then was not a match for the winner in the late stages. PICKIN PALE GOLD broke slowly, was outrun to the turn, swung out six wide into the lane and managed a mild gain. CHANCE ROMANCE gained the lead two wide, made the pace into the upper stretch and faltered. WANTING settled near the inside early, moved between horses four wide into the upper stretch, angled to the rail in the late going but couldn't make up the difference. LEE LEE'S KEYS, up close between foes early, moved inside on the turn and weakened after six furlongs. LADY LIKES THREES followed the leaders five wide and weakened approaching the stretch. MY SWEET VIOLET forced the early pace from between foes and tired.
