Footnotes

NEWPORT HARBOUR vied for the lead inside, took over on the turn, angled out once in the stretch and lasted late. TAR HEEL MOM lost her footing a bit at the start, drifted out recovering, raced close up while in hand and lodged a mild late bid. STEP OUT SMARTLY within striking distance, raced in the four path midway through the turn and lacked a closing bid. VALENTINE FEVER never far back three wide, tired. WHIRLIE BERTIE contested the pace three wide while in hand and gave way.
