Footnotes

SUAVE went up inside to vie for the lead at once, gained a slight edge, went along under careful handling while dueling with REMIND, shook off that one, was joined soon after by SECOND OF JUNE at at the quarter-mile ground, then gamely held that one safe while exchanging brushes approaching the wire. SECOND OF JUNE, between foes and never far back, raced four wide, engaged the winner in earnest entering the stretch, battled on even terms, exchanged brushes in the final yards and was outfinished. TAP DANCING MAUK, within easy striking distance and four or five wide, loomed prominently for the last eighth but couldn't produce the needed response. GREATER GOOD raced in contention while in behind rivals, maneuvered five wide for the drive but never rallied. REMIND, in front briefly after the start and outside SUAVE, dueled with that one for five furlongs and tired. SUPERFECTA WAGERING ON THIS RACE WAS CANCELED.
