Footnotes

SORCERER'S STONE, never far back and two or three wide, angled near the rail for the final furlong, took over, then was under brisk urging to hold sway. PRIVATE VOW, a bit awkward to start and outrun near the inside early, came out six wide leaving the turn, moved wider at the eighth pole and finished with good energy. CAPTAIN TROY gained the lead early, raced three wide, made the pace into the final furlong and weakened. PROVEYOURLOVE drifted out at the start, raced five or six wide throughout, leaned in tightening it up a bit on KINGS CHALLENGE about the sixteenth pole, then flattened out. PREACHINMANDAN chased front-running CAPTAIN TROY four wide to the stretch and weakened. KINGS CHALLENGE, within striking distance four or five wide, was checked between foes about the sixteenth pole when PROVEYOURLOVE leaned in, then had no further account. FOLLOWING A STEWARDS' INQUIRY, PROVEYOURLOVE WAS DISQUALIFIED FROM FOURTH AND PLACED LAST FOR INTERFERENCE IN THE STRETCH.
