DEWEY SQUARE tracked the pace three wide in hand, took over leaving the second turn, shook clear entering the stretch and widened. SYMPHONY FORTY ONE settled between horses while never far back, shifted out entering the stretch and finished willingly to earn the place. EXPLORING was allowed to settle, ranged up four wide to make his bid, but flattened in the drive and settled for the show. TWIN ENGINE attended the pace along the inside, got through but lacked a response when put to pressure. HE'S SO FINE was unhurried into stride and passed only the tiring one. XANTHOS opened clear to set the pace, was collared on the second turn and gave way readily once headed. DESERT STRIKE trailed.
