Footnotes

GUAM TYPHOON broke a step slow, pulled to contention between horses, dropped to the rail inside the furlong marker and wore down DOC'S FRIEND in the final strides. DOC'S FRIEND vied for the lead three deep, shook off FOREST ATTACK and edged clear nearing the furlong marker, kept on willingly through a prolonged drive, but was denied late. AZICHARMYOU chased the pace four wide, weakened entering the stretch but had enough left to preserve the show. KING A. J. was rank to place between horses, settled into stride toward the inside through the turn, shifted out five wide and finished with a belated gain. FOREST ATTACK dueled for the lead along the inside, disputed the issue to the final furlong and faded. LAST GRAN STANDING saved ground to no avail.
