Footnotes

SILVER LORD went up early to force the pace four wide, gained the edge just before going a half, then was under urging in the drive to hold sway. MARIA'S CHARM stalked the pace four or five wide, loomed boldly in the drive but wasn't good enough. NOBLE TRUTH moved in two wide to gain a slim lead while dueling early, was headed by the winner just before going a half and gradually weakened. FREEDOM ALERT, never far back and near the inside, couldn't offer a closing bid. TRIPLE NINE FINE, outsprinted early, made a mild run into the upper stretch and failed to continue. BULLSEYE SHOT had no rally in an even effort. RUMORS OF PEACE, outrun to the stretch, improved position but never was a threat. HAIL TO SHILOH was steadied along the inside when in tight at the five-sixteenths and failed to threaten. ALLENSWORTH never menaced. DR. MCDREAMY weakened leaving the turn. WAR CRY vied for the early lead while between foes and faded. IMPERIAL JUSTICE was slow to begin and never close.
