Footnotes

SEASIDE LINKS stalked the pace racing out from the rail while just off the leaders, moved outside to bid three wide through the far turn and move clear then drew off under a steady hand ride in the lane. BLAKE RATTLENROLL broke alertly and quickly moved clear to make the pace from along the inside, could not handle the winner through the far turn then held his position late. RECAST pressed the pace from outside BLAKE RATTLENROLL, continued from outside that one in the lane and held position but could not get by. FIRST CLASS BRASS stalked the pace racing three and four wide, moved to striking position in the far turn then could not sustain the run in the lane. I SPY WOLFIE angled three wide in the first turn and lacked a rally. SAX NOTES followed the pace while three or four wide and weakened. COBLE AVENUE was shuffled back between rivals at the start, was caught four and five wide in the first turn, angled in going to the far turn but dropped back. Due to a malfunction in the photo finish equipment, the beaten lengths at the finish were estimated off the video replays and the race timed in the same way.
