Footnotes

GRAND LEE was navigated out to the three path nearing the turn, prompted under rating, moved closer after three eighths, responded when roused in upper stretch, drew even a furlong out, poked a head in front a sixteenth from the wire, dueled under strong handling and narrowly prevailed. WHATABOOTIE sprinted clear early, angled in to set the pace, took pressure into the stretch, dueled from the furlong marker, battled gamely and just missed in a sharp effort. YENTE , away alertly, rated back off the leader and stalked while saving ground, eased out late and finished willingly. WILD MOCHA , three wide, edged closer nearing the quarter pole then flattened out. PAGAN PRIESTESS lagged back early, was asked near the quarter pole, came wide for the drive and found her best too late. SIZZLING HOT saved ground and lacked a bid.
