Footnotes

KIM'S DIXIE TUNE settled back early after being brushed soon after the break, worked his way between rivals leaving the three sixteenths marker, was steered to the inside leaving the eighth pole, surged under left handed pressure, came out some late bumping with PLEASE SIR and prevailed. BILLIONAIRE BOB saved ground into the turn, chased the dueling leaders mid turn, angled out four wide in upper stretch and finished up gamely outside the winner. BLUE TAPE, four wide early, moved to challenge into the turn, dueled on near even terms from three eighths pole to the sixteenth marker then gave way grudgingly. PLEASE SIR sprinted clear early, was joined entering the turn, dueled, drifted off the inside in the drive, bumped with the winner late and faded. TAKE IT ON HOME exchanged bumps with SHORT DANCER soon after the break, was outrun early, shifted out seven wide inside the three sixteenths marker then finished with interest. CATRIPII chased the pace, moved up a bit inside rivals in mid stretch, angled out late but lacked the needed finish. DIABLO KISSES, three wide between rivals early, chased the duelers and came up empty. ORAKPO settled well back, was roused four wide in upper stretch then found his best too late while working between horses. ADIOS AMIGO flashed speed, was eased back along the rail nearing the turn and failed to recover. AFTERNOON JAZZ lost ground four to five wide chasing the pace and gave way. MR. MANNIE , three to four wide between foes nearing the quarter pole, failed to keep up and gave way. SHORT DANCER bumped with TAKE IT ON HOME soon after the break and was outrun.
