Footnotes

OXFORD BLUES lacked speed along the rail, swung six wide near the five-sixteenths marker, closed strongly to take command near the sixteenth pole and prevail under a drive. MOUNT MERON was unhurried inside, angled out in upper stretch and finished strongly on his left lead. BONDED (IRE) stalked the pace from the rail, angled out leaving the five-sixteenths marker, drifted in and bumped ROMAN'S TOUCH in upper stretch, took command soon after but weakened in the final sixteenth. PRIZED PUPIL raced three wide around the first turn, lost ground six wide around the far turn, came extremely wide into the lane and finished willingly. ROMAN'S TOUCH chased the pace from the rail, bid inside around the far turn, was bumped by BONDED near the three-sixteenths marker and dropped back. BOWMAN'S BOY stalked the pace two wide and faded. SILENT TALE made a mild run between rivals around the far turn and flattened out in the drive. CRUISE MORE was never a factor while racing two wide. ECLAIR DU MONT never factored inside. MONEY ON THE MIND bore out at the start, sprinted clear around the first turn then faltered around the far turn. Following a claim of foul from the rider of ROMAN'S TOUCH, BONDED was disqualified and placed fifth.
