Footnotes

TWO MINUTE LICK was sent from the start and in so doing brushed a foe slightly, quickly cleared the field and set the pace along the inside, widened on the turn, drew off while kept to task late. EEK settled off the pace, advanced four wide on the turn, was no match for the winner but clear of the remainder of the field to be second best. RED MAX tracked inside to the top of the lane at which point he shifted off the rail, tired. BICO BLANCO was brushed at the start and the rider steadied just slightly, swung four wide into the lane, had no rally. THE ATLANTIS STORM broke alertly but soon began to drop back, was guided to the rail on the backstretch and never left that position, faded. RICH INTENTIONS showed brief foot moving between runners early to attend the pace two wide, gave way. FOLLOWING AN OBJECTION BY THE RIDER OF #3, BICO BLANCO, AGAINST THE WINNER, #4, TWO MINUTE LICK, FOR ALLEGED INTERFERENCE LEAVING THE GATE, NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.
