Footnotes

I'M CARDINAL was sent to the lead from the gate to set the pace in the clear, held sway while given intermittent reminders through the lane. LET'S CONNECT settled just off the pace early to stalk in the two to three path, was angled inside to the rail and put to a drive at about the five sixteenths pole, raced evenly but captured place. GAMEDAY SPANKING was just a bit slow into stride but soon moved up outside rivals into a stalking position, advanced three wide around the turn, captured show. EL COWBOY tracked inside, was asked for run at the quarter pole, came off the rail into the lane, produced no late bid. LET'S FACE IT never threatened. MAD PATRIOT was hustled along early racing off the inside. EXQUISITE OBERON raced inside, tired.
