Footnotes

SPA TOWN PARADE settled off the pace early, commenced a bid while shifting out four wide at the five sixteenths, engaged in a long drive that only belatedly picked up pace, determinedly got up in the final strides to prevail. OH SO GIA set the pace racing inside, spurted clear into the turn and widened through upper stretch, shortened stride in deep stretch and was just caught. YA NO ESTA was under stout restraint early toward the rear and inside, shifted off the rail to pass foes leaving the backstretch in a steady advance, had to wait behind horses from about the quarter pole to the top of the lane, angled back to the rail just prior to the furlong marker and had at this point captured show, continued to gain on the top two while never threatening and running well within herself. CHINITA MIA brushed a foe and was away a step slowly at the start, angled inside and stayed there until the quarter pole, came off the fence to be about four to five wide and procure clear sailing, belatedly made up ground. MCCOOKSPENBADGAL raced inside on or just off the rail throughout, dropped back on the turn but was able to improve position through the lane while finishing evenly. SWEET ANNE GOLD passed tiring rivals. DELITEYUL CANDY was away alertly and showed brief foot to attend the pace three wide, weakened. BHUVANESWARI raced four to five wide on the turn, never threatened. RUN GIA RUN brushed a foe at the start, was hustled along to be forwardly placed early but steadily dropped back, tired. POBEDA was never in contention. MISS VALENTINA was close early, steadily retreated.
