Footnotes

RICHARD CROY stalked the early pace of CENTUAR MAN, steadily advanced on that one on the turn, swept past at the top of the stretch, drew off under a vigorous hand ride and one right-handed tap of the whip while much the best. CENTAUR MAN was sent from the break to set the pace while well clear, was confronted by the eventual winner on the turn, offered no resistance as that one swept by, was hard ridden in the lane to maintain the place. RIDE CANDY RIDE was hustled along early between runners, emerged from the trailing pack into the far turn, finished evenly and missed place. VILLERE was widest of the trailing pack, entered the turn four wide, had come in to be three wide in the latter stages of the bend, had no late rally. EL COWBOY angled inside early on and never threatened. LAUGHING ALLTHEWAY raced between rivals three wide on the turn, angled out in upper stretch, tired.
