Footnotes

ESPINOSA (GB), shuffled back at the start, settled off the pace inside, came off the rail to make his bid from the head of the lane and closed in traffic the final furlong to take over in late yards. CAT 'N FIDDLE rated back off the rail, bid angling outward past the quarter pole and dueled late for place. BROADWAY ACTOR stalked the pace off the rail, moved to the lead midway on the final turn, drew clear in the upper stretch but was outfinished nearing the wire. MAGIC MECKE, off the pace off the rail, was boxed in three wide while between horses at the quarter pole, angled in at the top of the lane and dueled close late, though outfinished. VERISMO, off the pace in mid track, closed mildly and finished evenly five wide. STAY RED settled off the pace four wide, bid nearing the five sixteenths pole, took aim a furlong away but leveled out from there. GO JOE GO rated off the pace off the rail but lacked room through the final turn. THREE DEADLY SINS was outrun while mostly widest. QUISTOPHER drew quickly clear to rate the pace inside, was caught nearing the five sixteenths pole and gave way from there. SWINGMAN was not a factor.
