Footnotes

DIGHTON stalked a contested pace while saving ground, forged through an opening along the inside leaving the three sixteenths marker, struck the top near the eighth pole and widened under a drive. DAD'Z LAUGH pressed the pace three wide and four wide and stayed on willingly to get the place in the final yards. BOYFRIEND'S BACK, quickly to the front, set a pressured pace towards the rail, drifted off the inside entering the lane and gave way grudgingly through the final sixteenth. PUTY BOY, brushed at the break, dropped back early, raced between rivals into the stretch but failed to seriously menace. SIR COTTON, brushed at the break, raced wide and failed to menace. EXCELLENT KING disputed the pace between rivals and faltered leaving the three sixteenths marker. C D GOLD broke a step slow, was sent up between rivals past the five eighths pole, chased to the three furlong marker then retreated.
