Footnotes

OUTLAW SINGER rated the pace inside, was pressured from the head of the lane and dug in gamely to last. FIVE STAR D J rated off the pace toward the inside, eased outside the winner entering the stretch and was inching closer every stride though ran out of ground. AGRA stalked the pace three wide, bid leaving the five sixteenths pole and finished evenly to show. EL GRAN TONY, shuffled back at the start, was rated off the pace toward mid track, made a four wide bid into the final turn then leveled off in the lane. HIGH WATER was outrun. I'M DANCING TOO chased the pace about the four path then weakened toward the final turn. W ANTHONY S was hustled along early for better positioning into the opening turn, stalked the pace off the rail from the head of the backstretch but faded after a half mile. HEZANELITE was never a factor and eased.
