Footnotes

CINQUE TERRE reserved off the pace, steadied from close quarters soon after entering the first turn, advanced into contention four wide around the far turn, then rallied under pressure to be just up at the wire. JOAN'S ROYAL DAWN chased the pace, moved to take over racing down the backstretch, drew well clear in the stretch while remaining off the rail but couldn't resist the winner in the final strides. SHE'SFROM DELAWARE rated off the pace, saved ground around the far turn and rallied for the show. LADY LUCINDA stalked the pace along the inside, angled three wide on the far turn, then tired. MY FRIEND ROSSARIO tracked the pace to nearing the stretch and faltered. HOLIDAY BLAZE tracked the pace three wide into the far turn, then had nothing left. MEREDITH was never a factor. NINA'S GIFT was outrun. JACKIE B GOOD was taken up when she threw her head at the start and showed little. JOYFUL BIRD set the pace along the inside, then was fading when checked on the far turn.
