Footnotes

HOT CAPPUCINO settled well back inside, made a mild advance through the final turn, lacked room from the quarter to the top of the stretch, eased out a furlong away and rallied to the lead the final yards. PERFECT BERRY rated close inside, came under a drive while being eased three wide toward the quarter pole, eased out a lane into the stretch, dug in with a slim advantage to the final yards but was outfinished nearing the wire. GRAMMY'S QUEEN rated close about the three path, angled five wide making a bid toward the quarter pole, lost ground into the stretch then dug in gamely through the lane in a good effort. COCKTAIL HOUR, unhurried about the four path, was pressured nearing the final turn, blocked five wide at the top of the lane then finished strong outside. AVORIO, unhurried off the rail, made an inside bid through the final turn and finished evenly. RUTH WONDERS, off the pace two deep, lacked significant response on the final turn, was in tight at the quarter pole and finished evenly. MANDATED TO WIN settled unhurriedly inside, angled out making a bid into the final turn, was carried wider into the lane then leveled off through the stretch. SASSIDY settled off the pace about the four path then faded losing ground through the final turn. CALL OUR GIRL, shuffled back at the start, stalked the pace two deep, contested a slim advantage on the final turn and remained a close factor through the upper stretch before giving way. MALIBU DIVA rated the pace inside, contested the rail on the final turn then gave way in the lane. The stewards reviewed claims of foul against the winning rider and the rider of the fourth place finisher, lodged by the rider Ruth Wonders; in addition to a claim of foul against the rider of the second place finisher, lodged by the rider of Grammy's Queen. All claims were disallowed.
