Footnotes

SIR SPARKY settled off the pace, swept up to challenge four wide late in the final turn, extended stretch duel, proved narrowly best in determined fashion. FLYIN TREY set the early pace, gained a larger advantage before a half, responded when challenged, long stretch duel, stubborn, clearly 2nd best. LUIGI Q settled off the early pace inside,moved closer after four furlongs, in some traffic while continuing to save ground late in the second turn, lodged a mild rail bid when clear soon after, proved no match for the top two the final furlong. COMMANDER TATE squeezed back at the start, raced, steered out, mild late interest to improve position. HE'S SPECTACULAR off the pace, came five wide out of the final turn, went evenly through the lane. CHIPTease pressured the runner up from the outside early, weakened in the drive. TIZ TIME IS NOW tired from early efforts. POLITICAL PASSION in tight at the start, trailed throughout.
