Footnotes

HOLE IN THE HEAD saved ground just off the pace for the opening five furlongs, moved to four wide for the stretch drive and was then kept to his task. WAR PLAN was well rated while showing little early speed, began a drive towards the middle going, was five wide coming out of the far turn and finished as second best. FLOWER ALLEY out quickly to set a pressured pace from the inside, outlasted foe in the duel but was used up at the end. TAPALONG pressed the pace from between horses then did not have enough at the end. JUST LEAVEIT TO ME battled for the lead while racing three abreast and faded in the stretch. AILEEN'S PRIDE was outrun early then passed tiring foes. FOREVER ZAM raced from well back most way then had no bid. JACKSONIAN was through early.
