Footnotes

DON MISIL (ARG) stalked the pace while off the rail, bid into the turn, came under a full drive from the top of the stretch to reach the outside flank of the pacesetter near the eighth pole, dug in to put a head in front seventy yards out and drew clear toward the wire. B L'S NOISE, quickly in front, rated the pace inside to the top of the lane, drifted out under left hand urging and held off the winner to the seventy yard pole before yielding. PUT IT BACK TWENTY settled back off the rail, raced evenly through the turn, started a drive into the stretch though leveled off while good enough for show. CAPE HATCHET chased the pace inside then faded through the turn. JILLUKE chased the pace from the outside, lost ground nearing the quarter pole and eased the final furlong.
