Footnotes

SILK N' SEQUINS bobbed just slightly at the start, settled nicely off the pace racing off the inside, was put to a drive when swung five wide on the far turn, engaged in a long drive to surge past the leaders inside the final sixteenth. SPA TOWN PARADE attended the pace two to three wide, out-dued inside pace foe but was no match for the winner. THEYCALLMESASSY got away alertly, set the pace off the rail receiving steady pressure from outside, yielded in the lane. MCCOOKSPENBADGAL raced three wide and toward the rear early, split foes at the three sixteenths pole, improved position. CLASSIC TRIP chased the early pace, steadily retreated after the opening quarter, drifted out two paths on the turn, lugged in a bit in upper stretch, tired. DELITEYUL CANDY ducked into the gap just a bit after the start, never threatened. MISS VALENTINA chased the early leaders three wide, attempted to move between runners where there was limited space shortly after the quarter pole and was forced to check sharply. THERE WAS AN OBJECTION BY THE RIDER OF #6, MISS VALENTINA, AGAINST THE WINNER, #2, SILK N' SEQUINS, ALLEGING INTERFERENCE AT THE TOP OF THE LANE, BUT NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.
