Footnotes

CONGRATS HONEY was away alertly and cut over heading into the first turn, set a lively pace just off the rail, drew clear of the nearest challenger leaving the far turn, held sway while being kept to task late. RUSSIAN NIGHT moved up three wide on the first turn, stalked the pace off the inside, edged to within striking distance about the three eighths pole but couldn't reel in the winner, drifted out in the lane despite right handed encouragement, was second best. D J'S FOXY LADY angled to the rail entering the first turn, procured a good position stalking the quick pace in the clear, cut the far corner and appeared poised to rally but produced no late bid. JOAQUINA chased mid-pack racing off the rail, never factored. BHUVANESWARI raced inside throughout, passed tired rivals in the lane. CONCORD PARK shifted outside the pacesetter on the first turn to apply pace pressure from outside, steadily retreated. BERNA raced off the inside in about the three path, never threatened. PRINCESS ZAFIRAH failed to menace while racing near the rail.
