Footnotes

SISTER STEPHANIE settled off the pace while racing three wide, made a quick bid entering the far turn, seized command three wide near the three-sixteenths pole and drew off under a drive. APPEALETTA was bumped just after the start, settled off the pace inside, went four wide around the far turn, never threatened the winner but finished willingly for the place. MISS BESS chased the pace two wide, waited briefly for room midway around the far turn and was outfinished for the place. SHEA BALLETT vied inside early, re-bid two wide to take the lead near the five-sixteenths pole then tired around the far turn. BELLA FIORE saved ground and played no factor. ABA DABBLER raced without front shoes, broke in and bumped APPEALETTA just after the start, vied two wide around the first turn, cleared near the half-mile pole and faltered around the far turn.
