Footnotes

BLANCHE'S NARDER chased the pace about the three path, dueled to the front inside the three sixteenths pole, drew clear entering the stretch and steadily encouraged to the wire. HONKYTONK STOMP was shut off checking sharply early, chased the pace in mid track, checked sharply again to avoid Under Contract, who had fallen at the quarter pole, recovered momentum midway through the turn and finished evenly. LANCASTER GULLY lacked speed well back and off the rail, checked sharply to avoid Under Contract, who had fallen at the quarter pole, recovered stride midway on the turn, angled out into the stretch and finished well toward the outside. AL N CON was shut off and checked sharply early, chased the pace toward the outside, steadied at the quarter pole then leveled off in the stretch. ROCK TO BOP came sharply over to save ground while setting up a brisk pace, yielded control midway on the turn then weakened in the stretch. FLYINGPALM came away a step slow, gave distant chase toward the outside, leapt Under Contract, who had fallen at the quarter pole and lost his rider at that point. CLASSY SCAMP steadied on the chute, gave distant chase from the outside, leapt Under Contract, who had fallen at the quarter pole, and lost his rider at that point. UNDER CONTRACT, shut off early, was under a hard drive to chase the pace off the rail, started to bear out toward the turn then broke down at the quarter pole. After posting the inquiry, the stewards declared this race official.
