Footnotes

QUILLIAN dueled inside of TWENTY HAWKS to upper stretch, edged clear leaving the eighth pole then dug in late under left-handed urging to repel a late charge from the runner-up. SON OF A BEAR stalked the pace inside, raced three wide around the far turn, closed strongly through the lane and just missed. TWENTY HAWKS dueled outside of the winner to upper stretch, finished willingly but was out kicked by the top two. OILTON settled off the along the inside early, raced five wide around the far turn and lacked the needed rally. LOVE TO THE MAX chased the pace three and four wide and faded nearing the lane. TUP TAKE' PLEASE was fractious in the starting gate, broke a bit awkwardly, hopped soon after the start and trailed while racing three wide around the first turn and six wide around the far turn.
