Footnotes

FRENCHY THE REB set a rated pace along the rail, was content to allow SAILAWAY a short lead down much of the backstretch run, regained command when roused near the three-sixteenths pole, vied inside of his pace rival through the lane and prevailed. SAILAWAY rated two wide on a joint lead with the winner, led down much of the backstretch, briefly stretch out to a half-length advantage near the quarter pole, lost the lead again near the three-sixteenths pole, vied outside through the lane and was denied. HAPPY HARRY settled off the pace along the inside, was ridden along to keep close three wide around the far turn, was no match for the top two but was along for the show. LAST DEVIL stalked the pace three wide then faded while lugging in under left-handed urging in the lane. CHAT ROYALE was always in range while racing three and four wide and came up empty. BLACK TIE DINNER never factored while racing two and three wide. GHOSTLY MONEY was outrun while racing three and four wide. FIRST UP steadied into the first turn, chased the pace inside, retreated around the far turn and was eased in the lane. MONSTER DINNER had early speed five wide and stopped after a half.
