Footnotes

BEST TO GO WEST settled off the early pace toward mid track, was under a drive near the quarter pole, entered the stretch in the four path, dueled to the lead shortly afterward, raced clear past the sixteenth and steadily handled to maintain. GET MAD showed no speed well back toward the outside, bid near the five sixteenths pole, came through the final turn six wide and closed to deep stretch in an even finish. INDIGO MONTOYA rated a slim lead inside, contested a slight disadvantage through the final turn but remained a close factor to the sixteenth pole before weakening. SIR FIT'S TOO MUCH, unhurried inside, bid from the three eighths pole, angled outward on the final turn, steadied at the top of the stretch and flattened stride from there. TOUGH TALKING was shuffled back early, settled unhurriedly inside, eased out into the lane and leveled off the remainder. LUXURY TAX, off the pace about the four path, came in a lane in mid turn then proved empty in the stretch. PREMIER'S WHINNY, off the pace inside, was shut off midway on the final turn and couldn't recover. HEY THERE rated with the pace two deep, assumed slim control through the turn then weakened from between horses in midstretch. AWESOME DAVID stalked the early pace off the rail, gave chase down the backstretch then weakened into the final turn. GANGA was not a factor.
