Footnotes

J P'S GUSTO prompted the pace outside DER MEISTER, overtook that one approaching the three eighths pole, opened up under urging on the far turn and was kept under brisk rousing through the stretch. LORANGER NATIVE, forwardly placed along the rail, angled to three path for room midway on the far turn, was taken back to the rail in upper stretch and rallied gamely. NACHO SAINT, a forward factor two wide on the first turn, circled the far turn three wide and finished willingly. LITTLE DRAMA, fractious in the starting gate, raced three wide on the first turn, chased the pace to the stretch then weakened. YANKEE PASSION, wide both turns, was not a factor. DECISIVE MOMENT, two wide the first turn, was four wide on the far turn and failed to be a factor. VEE'S ACCOLADE, wide the far turn, was outrun. B G SUAVECITO stumbled leaving the starting gate, saved ground and faded in the drive. BLACK N BEAUTY, three wide the first turn, was outrun. DER MEISTER had speed along the rail, gave way near the quarter pole and faltered in the stretch.
