Footnotes

CAFE KOMODO quickly drew clear while taking the inside, rated his speed to the five sixteenths pole, widened under pressure through the final turn and proved much the best with steady stretch handling. ACCEPTANCE LETTER settled back inside, bid in the three path leaving the five sixteenths pole and was along for place. GAGMAN, off the pace and off the rail, gave chase from the five sixteenths pole then leveled off through the lane. MISCOE GRAY rated close to the early pace off the rail, gave chase leaving the first turn but had little left in the stretch. LEGENDARY LUXURY, off the pace and off the rail, faded through the backstretch. MAY KING came away awkwardly, kept close to the early pace about the three path, gave chase leaving the first turn then faded through the backstretch. CAFE KOMODO WAS DISQUALIFIED FROM FIRST TO UNPLACED FOR A MEDICATION VIOLATION.
