Footnotes

MOON GLO MAE chased the pace inside, lost some ground leaving the turn, regained a straight course at the head of the lane to reach the girth of the pacesetter midstretch and dug in under determined handling to inch ahead the final yards. ANOTHERDIRTYSECRET, quickly clear, set a pressured pace inside, contested a slim advantage through the turn, dug in gamely through the stretch though reluctantly ceded the final yards. VANESSAK, a step slow to break, gave chase inside, checked from between horses nearing the quarter pole, resumed her drive off the rail through the turn, eased five wide into the lane and finished well to show. CANYON SONG chased the pace inside then leveled off through the lane. BABY HARLOW gave chase three wide then weakened into the stretch. FARNELL'S ALLEY chased the pace outside and drifted wider through the turn. DEWEY BEACH saved ground and never factored. QUEEN ROYALE was reluctant to load, through early and appeared sore upon return.
