Footnotes

REFLECTED AFFAIR stalked the pace two wide, took command near the five-sixteenths pole and drew off under a hardy drive. SERGEANT SAXTON set the pace along the rail, was collared near the five-sixteenths pole, chased inside around the far turn, angled out in upper stretch and just lasted for the place. DONTSELLMETOFELONS settled inside, angled four wide nearing the eighth pole and was along for the show. SHAMSS failed to menace while racing two and three wide and drifting in in the stretch. PURELY BUSINESS was no factor while racing three wide. GUSKA'S GOLD prompted the pace two wide, took a brief lead near the half-mile pole, vied down the backstretch and tired inside around the far turn.
