Footnotes

OMARA DEVIL bumped with BELLE OF CAMDEN just after the start, stalked the pace two wide through the opening half, advanced three wide between horses leaving the quarter-pole, came out slightly and bumped HOUSEHUNTER, pushing that rival into LITTLE SHINEY near the three-sixteenths pole, rallied between rivals in upper stretch, took command in midstretch and inched away under a steady drive. LITTLE SHINEY was unhurried while racing three wide around the first turn, moved up five wide into the far turn, was bumped by HOUSEHUNTER near the three-sixteenths pole, had her heels clipped by that rival nearing the lane, vied outside of the winner in upper stretch and was out kicked in the final sixteenth. BANCO BANNER stalked the pace three wide, took the lead nearing the five-sixteenths pole, set the pace in the three path around the far turn, led to midstretch and weakened. FORCEFULLY set a pressured pace along the rail and tired faded around the far turn. BELLE OF CAMDEN bumped with the winner just after the start, lacked speed inside and improved her position three and four wide around the far turn. CATS ZIP disputed the pace outside of FORCEFULLY through the opening half and tired. EXQUISITE OPTION never factored while saving ground. HOUSEHUNTER raced three wide around the first turn, bid four wide around the far turn, was bumped by the winner near the three-sixteenths pole, clipped LITTLE SHINEY'S heels nearing the lane and nearly lost her rider and was eased through the lane. The Stewards posted the inquiry sign and the rider of HOUSEHUNTER claimed foul against LITTLE SHINEY, alleging interference around the far turn, but the Stewards found insufficient evidence to warrant a disqualification.
