Footnotes

HARBOUR MOON settled back toward mid track, bid at the five sixteenths pole, steadily improved five wide on the final turn, dueled to the front in late stretch and dug in under a hardy drive to inch away nearing the wire. THISCOULDBETRICKY held a slim lead inside the opening turn, stalked a new leader from the nine sixteenths pole, dueled to recover the top spot approaching the head of the lane and held the advantage to deep stretch before grudgingly ceding. CAROL SNUCK IN stalked the pace about the three path, moved to the front three wide approaching the three eighths pole, contested the advantage to the end of the final turn, was caught at that point and leveled out in the stretch. DREAM ON J C, well back of the early pace outside, made a bid saving ground nearing the quarter pole but showed little further down the lane. ANCHORWOMAN rated close to the early pace off the rail, was hemmed in past the half mile pole, eased out with a bid past the five sixteenths, rounded the final turn four wide but weakened in the stretch. MATTAPONI, reluctant to load, was roughed angling five wide into the first turn, gave close chase four wide from the half mile pole then weakened from the top of the stretch. GAIL'S ROYAL FLUSH moved to a slim brief lead near the nine sixteenths pole, was caught toward the three eighths, checked from between horses approaching the final turn and gave way from there. SHE SURE IS was not a factor.
