Footnotes

GIANT PATRIOT sprinted to the early, set the pace along the rail, steadily increased his advantage and was under brisk urging in the stretch. SALADIN lacked speed, saved ground on the turns and rallied. A. P. BEST, three wide the first turn, was under urging in the four path midway down the backstretch, circled the far turn and failed to sustain his bid. P FORTY WARHAWK saved ground and retreated. JAREDAN, checked on the heels of a rival while two wide near the three eighths pole, swung outside near the quarter pole and fell back. EXCHANGE IN MOTION chased the pace for nearly a half mile then faltered.
