Footnotes

R C'S APHRODITE stalked the pace from the three path, took aim midway on the turn, drew clear from the head of the lane and was under steady handling to widen. MOON GLO MAE chased the winner from the inside and finished evenly to be second best. WATCH AND WONDER pressured the pace inside, drifted off leaving the three sixteenths pole and leveled off in the lane. NO PARACHUTE was hustled to the front for inside position to set a pressured pace, was caught nearing the eighth pole and readily gave way. CHEROKEE'S GIRL, slow into stride, saved ground to give chase. MISS RUBY T, briefly close, faded. MY GIRL KATELYN hesitated several lengths at the break.
