WILDCAT SKIER rated a slim lead inside, edged clear rounding the final turn, was driven into the stretch and drew off under moderate intermittent encouragement. SOOTHING BELL stalked the pace three wide, raced at even terms near the three eighths pole, gave chase from the five sixteenths, lost ground entering the stretch but came back to duel for place. POWHATAN PRINCESS rated with the pace while alternating for early control, raced between horses down the backstretch, gave chase toward the quarter pole then outfinished in the duel for place. UNEVEN REFLECTION rated close to the pace inside, gave chase toward the quarter pole then leveled out in the lane. MISTY'S SONG entered the first turn in the four path, rated close four wide down the backstretch but had no further response on the final turn.
