Footnotes

GINA'S GARDEN hustled clear leaving the seven sixteenths pole, saved ground to set the pace, was prompted midway on the turn and held well under strong encouragement. ALLY BEAR chased the pace three and four wide and progressed steadily through the lane. DISTANT KAIN settled back off the rail, angled outward from mid turn, entered the stretch in the five path and finished well. SASSY AND SHEIKH came away bobbling with the lead, bobbed once more on the chute, chased the pace three wide though leveled off through the lane. PICO SPRING WILLOW, edgy in the gate, chased the pace from the inside, was in tight at the rail nearing the top of the lane then leveled off in the drive. ZALADY chased the pace two deep, steadied from between horses at the top of the lane and weakened from there.
