Footnotes

BUY OUT chased the early pace four wide, saved ground on the turn, dueled to the front midstretch and edged clear in late yards. GOT THE URGE engaged in close early chase five wide, saved some ground through the turn, angled inside the drifting pacesetter midstretch and finished evenly in place. DONT ROB BOB gave chase from off the pace while two deep, moved to the rail past the quarter pole and finished evenly. LIVNGOOD was hustled clear nearing the seven sixteenths pole, rated to mid turn, came under pressure from the eighth pole but cross-fired leads while bearing outward through the lane and gave way. UNCLE HERB gave distant chase from the outside, was carried out from midstretch though finished well. CAROLING MIA chased the early pace from the inside, steadied near the rail past the quarter pole, angled to the four path leaving the turn but showed little further down the lane. TIDAL BASIN was no factor while saving ground. ROVIN GAMBLER bobbled on the chute and raced well back.
