Footnotes

MR. LONZO burst out on top out of the chute, comfortable pace up the backstretch and through the turn, rebroke in the late going to win comfortably under steady handling. KING TEPU outrun in the early going after steadying at the start, made a steady advance along the inside to move into contention turning for home, eased out entering the stretch, no match for the winner the final sixteenth, held sway for the place. QUALITY JACK asked early to be closest to the winner while off the inside, floated out a bit wider into the lane by the runner up, made little inroads on that rival or the winner late, clear of the others. MISSILE ASSAULT turned in an even effort throughout while racing in the three path. CAROLING MIA lacked early foot, made little impact in the drive. PAM'S LUC fell back to trail after the start, showed little while racing wide. BLUSHING DAMSEL forwardly placed in the early going off the inside, began to fade after a quarter.
