PROCUSTES rated a slim lead inside, came under pressure from the three eighths pole, contested a slight advantage at the rail rounding the final turn, yielded control at the head of the lane then leveled off from the sixteenth pole. SKIP TO THE NORTH rated close to the early pace off the rail, was boxed between horses midway on the second turn to the seven sixteenths pole, came under a drive leaving the quarter, rounded the final turn five wide then leveled out in the lane. SILENT SHOT, well back inside, closed mildly from the three eighths pole then leveled off in the stretch. ALBERS stalked the early pace two deep while between horses, challenged for the lead leaving the three eighths pole and continued at even terms through the final turn before weakening. ENABLE raced mostly toward the outside and never factored. ITINERIS was no factor while saving ground. TACTICAL STING was no factor toward mid track.
