Footnotes

MY MARLIE dueled from the outside for the early lead, remained engaged up the backstretch, shook loose entering the drive and proved much the best while lightly roused. MOTHER MARY stalked the early pace from the outside, steadily advanced entering the second turn, responded but was no match while gaining the place. EASTER ANGEL well placed from the inside, crept closer entering the second turn, responded but could only hold position. BET DAT far back early, advanced outside entering the second turn, responded and closed well late. TWIN CAPITAL forced the early pace from the inside but had nothing left for the drive. JETT BABE could only pass tired ones. POOF SHE'S GONE dueled from the inside and tired. SATELLITE SALLY was no factor. AL TEE had a steady fade. ADDY ANNIE had little interest and bled.
