Footnotes

BLIND LUCK was unhurried early then moved up smartly around the far turn, drew on even terms outside HAVRE DE GRACE with a furlong to run then was under a hard drive to prove narrowly best. HAVRE DE GRACE was well placed racing just off the top two early then edged closer after six furlongs and gained the lead midway through the far turn, drew clear then fought it out gamely to the end. LIFE AT TEN broke alertly and saved ground disputing the pace to the midway point of the far turn then weakened in the drive. LOVE'S BLUSH moved closer completing a mile then lacked a further response. THUNDERING EMILIA broke sharp and disputed the pace racing two abreast then tired.
