Footnotes

UNCLE BRENT fanned wide into the first turn, bid wide to the front after a half, moved clear on the turn, was challenged at the eighth pole and held on gamely. THEY CALL ME GIANT allowed to settle early, moved swiftly to contention on the final turn, loomed boldly but was outfinished. LENTENOR rated inside behind the pacesetters then weakened through the stretch. GAITHER DRAW pursued the loose pacesetter to the final turn then weakened. CRIMSON COMIC sprinted clear angling inside, stopped after a half then steadied while tiring on the final turn. JUST A COINCIDENCE made a menacing move outside on the final turn then had no further response. QUE PASO was close up three wide for five furlongs then gave way. SILVER EAGLE swerved his head to the inside stall at the start losing any chance then was outdistanced in the running. A steward's inquiry was conducted into the start of the race with no action taken.
