Footnotes

WATCH TOWER was fractious in the gate, stalked the pace off the rail through most of the backstretch after breaking a step slow, moved to the lead into the turn and widened under steady stretch handling. LOPSTER, fractious in the gate, saved ground while well back, closed in mid track on the turn then dueled the final sixteenth for place. UNCLE NICK unseated his rider and ran loose in the post parade, settled well back from the pace and off the rail, angled out through the turn, bid into the stretch and finished evenly outside. CHILL WIND rated the pace inside but faded nearing the five sixteenths pole. MEADOW MOBSTER was through after a quarter. SILVER TIE AFFAIR was never a factor. COBY showed only brief speed before fading.
